

1 | History 30: Unit 2 Exam Outline

---

Complete this exam outline in full to prepare for both the written and objective components of the next test. This outline, in addition to all the interactive activities found on the website, will help insure the best possible prospects for success.

1). Glossary

Compile a glossary for the following people, events, terms, etc. for the objective component of your exam.

Oath of Allegiance:

Dynastic Struggle:

Governor Frontenac:

General James Wolfe:

General Montcalm:

Annapolis Royal:

Kondiaronk:

Pierre d'Iberville:

Schenectady Massacre:

Lachine Massacre:

Battle on the Hudson:

Acadia:

Robert Monckton:

George Washington:

Fort Louisbourg:

General de Levis:

Governor Guy Carleton:

Governor Drucor:

Quebec Act:

Royal Proclamation:

Fort William Henry:

Father la Loutre:

Micmac:

2). Written Questions

Read the essay Colonial Wars located in the Student Zone. Then answer the following questions. Be advised that you can also access relevant information on web pages 2.3 and 2.4. These short answer questions and the essay form the basis of the short answer questions found on the unit end exam.

1). What were the three main causes of the Colonial Wars?

2). In your opinion, which one of the four colonial wars was the most important for the future of Canada?

3). In your opinion, did the inclusion of Quebec increase or decrease the odds of Canada eventually developing in to a multicultural society?