

1 | History 30: Unit 2 Exam Outline

Complete this exam outline in full to prepare for both the written and objective components of the next test. This outline, in addition to all the interactive activities found on the website, will help insure the best possible prospects for success.

1). Glossary

Compile a glossary for the following people, events, terms, etc. for the objective component of your exam.

Oath of Allegiance:

Dynastic Struggle:

Governor Frontenac:

General James Wolfe:

General Montcalm:

Annapolis Royal:

Kondiaronk:

Pierre d'Iberville:

Schenectady Massacre:

Lachine Massacre:

Battle on the Hudson:

Acadia:

Robert Monckton:

George Washington:

Fort Louisbourg:

General de Levis:

Governor Guy Carleton:

Governor Drucor:

Quebec Act:

Royal Proclamation:

Fort William Henry:

Father la Loutre:

Micmac:

2). Written Questions

Answer the following questions to prepare for the written questions as found on your unit end exam. Remember that you get your answers for written questions from the tutorial readings (unless otherwise specified).

1). What were the three main causes of the Colonial Wars?

2). In your opinion, which one of the four colonial wars was the most important for the future of Canada?

3). Why did Britain expel the Acadians in 1755 but not in 1713 AD?

4). Why didn't Britain expel the Canadiens of Quebec in 1763?

5). Why did the Acadians refuse to accept the conditional oath but accept the unconditional one?

6). In your opinion, did the inclusion of Quebec increase or decrease the odds of Canada eventually developing in to a multicultural society?

