

Scottish Wars of Independence: Timeline

Use the readings from the Civilization, War & Revolution website to fill in the boxes of the timeline below. I will provide a title or brief description of what happened and you answer questions related to when, who and significance. Under significance you are trying to say something about the overall importance (significance) of the event to the Scottish Wars of Independence.

3.0 Scottish Wars of Independence: Introduction		3.1 Balliol vs. Bruce
Death of Alexander III	Treaty of Birgham Signed	Princess Margaret Dies	A New King Appointed	Battle of Dunbar
When:	When:	When:	When:	When:
Who:	Who:	Who:	Who:	Who:
Significance:	Significance:	Significance:	Significance:	Significance:
3.2 William Wallace		3.3 Battle of Stirling Bridge	3.4 Battle of Falkirk
Wallace Kills Heselrig and Frees Glasgow, etc.	Scottish Nobles Killed at the Barns of Ayr	Battle of Stirling Bridge	Battle of Falkirk	Wallace Resigns as Guardian of Scotland
When:	When:	When:	When:	When:
Who:	Who:	Who:	Who:	Who:
Significance:	Significance:	Significance:	Significance:	Significance:

3.5 Conclusion
William Asks Philip V of France for Assistance	Wallace Meets with Pope	Robert Reconciles with England	Wallace Returns from France	Wallace is Captured
When:	When:	When:	When:	When:
Who:	Who:	Who:	Who:	Who:
Significance:	Significance:	Significance:	Significance:	Significance:
3.5 Conclusion
Wallace Tried for Treason	Robert Bruce Crowned King	Edward II Succeeds Edward I of England	Battle of Bannockburn	Edward II Overthrown
When:	When:	When:	When:	When:
Who:	Who:	Who:	Who:	Who:
Significance:	Significance:	Significance:	Significance:	Significance: