Formative Assessment: Short Answer & Synthesis Self-Evaluation Rubric

Use the rubric below to evaluate yourself based on how well you performed during the group work for the current section of study.

Note: you can only earn group question marks by attending class and participating in the process. If you miss class, you will lose the associated marks.

Criteria/Mark	2	1	0
LISTENING Effective listeners are attentive, maintain eye-contact, and try to understand what others are saying	I listened carefully and attentively. I emerged from the discussion with a decent understanding of the question's topic.	I was sometimes distracted during the discussion. I allowed others to take me off-task during group discussion.	I did not listen carefully or attentively. I emerged from the discussion without forming a firm understanding of the question's topic.
SPEAKING/SHARING Effective speakers stay on task and avoid sharing information not directly related to the question	I spoke up during the group discussion. I shared only relevant insights and opinions and I didn't monopolize the discussion.	I spoke a little bit during the group discussion. I sometimes joked around and talked about things other than what I was supposed to.	I did not speak up at all during the group discussion. I monopolized the group discussion.
ASSIGNMENT Individuals must take responsibility for what they do or do not do during the group work process.	My group completed the question by deadline I wrote down the group answer to the question.		My group did not complete the question by deadline. I did not write down the group answer to the question.
